

Travel Scholarships for Participating in the International Summer School
'XXIV. Greifswalder Ukrainicum', 5 – 17 August 2019
*Ukraine's Forced Choice

The "Greifswalder Ukrainicum" is an international summer school on science, culture and language of Ukraine, organised by the Alfried Krupp Wissenschaftskolleg Greifswald and the University of Greifswald. It is funded by the Alfried Krupp von Bohlen und Halbach-Stiftung, Essen, Germany. Ukrainian language courses and seminars provide the unique opportunity to learn more about Ukraine in its diversity. Film screenings as well as public lectures complement the program and offer further views on Ukraine.

This year the seminars will be the following:

Iryna Starovoyt (L'viv): Against Remembering: Holodomor, Holocaust and Ukrainian Identity Work (language of the seminar: Ukrainian)

Frank Golczewski (Hamburg): Historical Crossroads. The Developments in Ukrainian History During the 20th Century (language of the seminar: German)

Heiko Pleines (Bremen): Free and Forced Choices: Possibilities and limits of democratization (language of the seminar: German)

Theocharis Grigoriadis (Berlin): N.N. (language of the seminar: English)

We are also very glad to welcome the following speakers for our evening program:

Oksana Syroid (Kyiv), Dirk Uffelmann (Passau), Claudia Dathe (Tübingen).
