About the conference

- 1) The languages of the conference are all the Slavic languages, English and German.
- 2) Notification of acceptance will be sent to all participants via e-mail no later than July 30, 2022. We are able to accept no more than 80 papers. Priority will be given to papers which address Slavic languages usually underrepresented in the conference.
- 3) Please note that according to the Association of Slavists POLYSLAV regulations everyone who attends the annual Polyslav conference and pays the conference fee may become (by their wish) a member of the Association of Slavists POLYSLAV.
- 4) The conference fee:
 - 70 euro for participants who attended a Polyslav conference since 2018;
 - 100 for all other participants.The fee is to be paid either via bank transfer or cash at the reception of the conference. Please find the bank account details below. The conference fee does not cover accommodation, alimentionation nor any visa fees.
- 5) The papers will be double blind peer-reviewed and will be published in conference proceedings by Harrassowitz Verlag Publishing House. Only original, previously unpublished papers are eligible. Please note that neither paying the conference fee and attending the conference, nor submitting the paper guarantees publication. The decision is based solely on the positive reviews.
- 6) According to the Association of Slavists POLYSLAV, NGO charter, one of the member's privileges (obligations at the same time) is participating in the annual plenum during which important matters such as organizing the next conference and publishing the conference proceedings are discussed.
- 7) The organizing committee will suggest some accomodation options (paid by the conference participants).

8) For participants not able to attend the conference in person an online panel will be organized.

You are welcome to forward this email to anyone who might also be interested.
